Diversity and inclusion

The Government of Canada recognizes that many under-represented groups face unique economic challenges. Understanding that participation of underrepresented groups is an integral part of building strong and inclusive communities, and helps the Government of Canada provide inclusive programming to support all groups.

Priority may be given to applications that can demonstrate how they support inclusive growth.

Is your business owned or majority-owned or is your organization led or majority-led by one or more of the following under-represented groups (select one option that applies) ?
